

Jessica Stump was born and raised at Snowshoe Mountain, WV. Graduating from Pocahontas County High School in 2000 I went on to further my career at Alderson Broaddus College majoring in Management Information System where I received my Bachelors of Science degree in 2004. I started my career path at Snowshoe Mountain in December of 2000 as a server at Cheat Mountain Pizza, and worked throughout college. After graduation I began working in the Accounting Department for Snowshoe where I quickly received the position of Senior Financial Analyst. In July 2013, I transitioned my focus and became the Executive Director of the Snowshoe Foundation and Community Liaison for Snowshoe Mountain. I also assist with the operation of the Snowshoe Mountain Career Center in Marlinton; and am currently a board member with the Pocahontas County Chamber of Commerce & the Pocahontas County Prevention Coalition.
